AUDITOR'S REPORT

GEORGE N. WRIGHT,

REPORT OF SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Members of the School Board of Marlow:

Attention is called to the fact that Marlow received the sum of $1,014.38 from the State Board of Education for the support of Marlow's schools during the past year.

The rising costs of all materials and the shortage of teachers makes the present year the most costly in the history of the town since two schools only have been run. The coming year will not be more expensive per school child, and we believe that the cost will be less. The amount of state aid expected will assist to a somewhat greater extent.

Transportation has proved to be an exceedingly large item, but neither school board nor superintendent can see their way clear to a smaller cost until the cost of labor and team hire is reduced. Marlow is fortunate in having for the greater part of its transportation service excellent equipment and careful drivers.

During the school year 1920-1921 we are fortunate in having an efficient truant officer and we believe that the thoughtful people of the town are strongly with him in his attempts to better the school attendance. Many of the children in attendance in the Marlow schools will not have further opportunity to become even reasonably well educated than is offered right in the village school, and it is the duty of all concerned in the welfare of the next generation to see to it that careless or indifferent parents do not permit their children to lose any of the few years of school privileges.

The Superintendent wishes particularly to express the pleasure and profit gained from many associations made in Marlow both in and outside of the school board. The interest shown by the gift of material and supplies for manual training work may well be duplicated in other families along other much needed lines of school endeavor. Better support of the schools, more frequent visiting by citizens, and a rallying around the school as a community need, will produce better schools and better community spirit.

The remodeling of the schools to make the rooms more attractive and better lighted was accomplished in major part during the summer. The toilets were again made decent and the habits of the children have greatly improved in regard to proper use of the school and its adjuncts. Nothing improves the spirit of a school comparably with clean, white walls, and windows letting in light enough to show up the corners of the rooms. School morale has immeasurably improved.

Marlow schools are this year being crowded ahead to catch up with the pace set in the surrounding towns. The children are responding fairly well to high speed methods and such children as were held back from grading on a par with the children in nearby towns are gradually being brought into line. Patience is needed in any school system where great changes are made to bring old methods into accord with the demands of business men and secondary schools.

There is no reason why the schools in Marlow should not stand on a par with any in the state, but to accomplish this it will need the cooperation of every parent, not merely in the method of destructive criticism, but by steady pressure upon the children in the homes and by frequent conferences with teachers, school board and by appointments with the superintendent who is always pleased to receive invitations for a talk concerning the children in the schools.

For the many courtesies and wise counsel extended to your superintendent by the members of the school board he sincerely extends thanks.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) H. LAWTON CHASE.
